

PM Netanyahu meets with General Secretary of the Global Islamic Organization Nahdlatul Ulama

14 Jun 2018

Many Muslim countries are getting closer to Israel for various reasons; the first is security – the common struggle against the Iranian regime and ISIS, and the second is technology.

PM Netanyahu and Yahya Cholil Staquf, General Secretary of the global Islamic organization Nahdlatul Ulama
Copyright: GPO/Haim zach

(Communicated by the Prime Minister's Media Adviser)

Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, today (Thursday, 14 June 2018), at the Prime Minister's Office in Jerusalem, met with Yahya Cholil Staquf, the General Secretary of the global Islamic organization Nahdlatul Ulama. The Prime Minister told him that many Muslim countries are getting closer to Israel for various reasons; the first is security – the common struggle against the Iranian regime and ISIS, and the second is technology.

Prime Minister Netanyahu:

"Israel is the innovation nation, and I'm very happy to see that the Arab countries and many Muslim countries getting closer to Israel. I hope that we have some movement with Indonesia."

<http://mfa.gov.il/MFA/PressRoom/2018/Pages/PM-Netanyahu-meets-with-General-Secretary-of-the-Global-Islamic-Organization-Nahdlatul-Ulama.aspx>