The Nation's Mosque Statement

Spiritual leaders of Indonesia's Nahdlatul Ulama, the world's largest Muslim organization;
the World Evangelical Alliance, which represents 600 million Protestants in 140 countries; and Masjid Muhammad, The Nation's Mosque, a community of the late Imam W. Deen Mohammed, in Washington, DC, the first mosque in the United States built by descendants of enslaved African Americans, call upon people of goodwill of every faith and nation to join in building a global alliance founded upon shared civilizational values.

This global alliance seeks to prevent the political weaponization of identity; curtail the spread of communal hatred; promote solidarity and respect among the diverse people, cultures and nations of the world; and foster the emergence of a truly just and harmonious world order, founded upon respect for the equal rights and dignity of every human being.
